A play written by A.R. Gurney and performed by Page to Stage, "Love Letters" sees a couple reading lifelong correspondence. From these letters the audience gets a taste of the bittersweet relationship between staid, dutiful lawyer Andrew Makepeace Ladd III and the lively, unstable artist Melissa Gardner.

Can a dog break up a marriage?
In "Sylvia," empty-nesters Greg and Kate have recently moved to Manhattan to start the next phase of their life and marriage. Greg's career is winding down and Kate's is picking up when Greg brings home Sylvia, a stray dog who manages to worm herself into their lives and hearts. As Greg spends more and more time with this new house guest, Kate fears her marriage is falling apart and hilarity ensues.
